

1 & 2/554 Moffat Street Lavington NSW

4 2 4

This complex of 2 townhouses could be yours. With strong rental demand and increasing returns investors should be quick with this package.

Every now and then something really special comes along ... this is one of those delightful opportunities that instantly grabs your attention.

Privately tucked away from the road sits this remarkable opportunity to purchase 2 well maintained townhouses offering the new buyer the opportunity to either move straight in or rent out without having to lift a finger.

The single level will lure downsizers, the space will attract young families, whilst investors will find the well-kept condition hard to resist.
